Stop The Obamacare Shell Game

Republicans want to stabilize Obamacare by paying off the powerful health-plan cartel the law created. They're not trying to repeal the law, they're trying to save it. That's what "stabilize" means.

It's also a deceptive shell game. Health plans threaten to raise premiums unless Congress pays them billions to lower premiums.

In short, health plans want Congress to take more from your back pocket in taxes so some of you can pay less from your front pocket in premiums.

This bad Obamacare idea is called "reinsurance." Tell Congress to stop the shell game. Tell them to repeal Obamacare, not stabilize it.
