What People Ask About The Wedge

Today is Wedge of Freedom Wednesday. I'm going to share questions we get about The Wedge of Health Freedom. One person asked if Wedge practices are in California and Colorado. Somehow this person, although on the Wedge website, missed our "Find a practice" tab on the top of the page. Just click on "Find a Practice" and a searchable map appears with every Wedge practice, including a variety in Colorado and in California.

Someone else emailed, asking if a person could use The Wedge if they had insurance through work. Absolutely. A Wedge practice takes cash, check or charge. What you do with your health insurance is between you and your insurer. More info found at jointhewedge.com
