What Are They Hiding?

Ask for access to your ENTIRE medical record. Former VP Joe Biden had a heated conversation last week with the CEO of Epic, who's become a billionaire because of the electronic health record mandate. He wants full access to patient medical records. She retorted, "Why do you want your medical records? They're a thousand pages of which you understand 10." He responded tartly, "None of your business."

Your EHR is a gold mine for data-miners. The only reason it's so many pages is because it wasn't made for patient care. It was mandated for data collection and government reporting. Epic's CEO doesn't want you seeing what they're keeping. Ask for a complete copy. Don't settle for a summary that hides the truth.
