Will a Judge “Repeal” Obamacare?

Seventeen years ago, terrorists attacked America. But in an amazing show of unity, members of Congress stood on the Capitol steps and sang “God Bless America.” But just nine years later, another attack on America was waged, this time by Democrats in Congress who passed the Affordable Care Act to nationalize health care.

Happily, a judge may soon strike down the entire law in a case brought by 20 state attorneys general. As you may recall, the Supreme Court ruled the law constitutional because it said the Obamacare penalty was a tax. But last year, Congress zeroed out the penalty, so these attorneys say the law is no longer constitutional. Is it possible that a judge will “repeal” Obamacare”?
