

YOU ARE NOT REQUIRED TO SIGN HIPAA “PRIVACY” FORMS

The HIPAA form is only an acknowledgment that you have received and understood the clinic or hospital “Notice of Privacy Practices.”

FACT: Signing the HIPAA form does not provide you with any privacy or consent rights - and it could be used against you if you ever declare that your privacy rights have been violated. If you sign, clinics or hospitals can use your signature to argue that you knew your private information could be shared by law without your consent. Refuse to sign.

According to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services:

The law does not require you to sign any acknowledgement of receipt of notice
