Consumer Driven Health Care: Public Sector Opportunities

The Minnesota Finance Department reports that more than one-third of the state’s expenditure growth is in health and human services spending. In response, the 2003 state legislature considered a plan to ration health care services. This seminar will discuss alternatives for reducing costs while improving service in publicly-funded health care programs, including Medicaid and public employee health insurance.

Speakers

Jim Frogue, HHS Task Force Director, American Legislative Exchange Council (D.C.)
Commissioner Penny Steele, Board of Hennepin County Commissioners (MN)
Greg Scandlen, Center for Consumer Directed Health Care, Galen Institute (D.C.)

Panel Discussion to Follow Presentations
There will be ample opportunity for questions and discussion.
