OTHER INFO
Share Payment Tax-Deductible as Donation, or Medical or Insurance Expense?	No, except in Missouri where the amount is deductible from state income taxes.	Monthly gift amount is not tax deductible, however, all "extra giving" above the minimum monthly gift qualifies as a charitable contribution.	No, except in Missouri where the amount is deductible from state income taxes. However, all 'extra donations' (such as Special Prayer Needs...) made through the office as a 501©3 ministry are tax deductible."
Extra Sharing Gifts from members	Monthly publication lists members with need ineligible for sharing. Extra Blessing Gifts can be sent directly to members on the list, or sent to the ministry where they are distributed monthly on prorated basis	Members regularly send the ministry extra gifts, ranging from $5 to $10,000.	Needs that do not meet the Guidelines may be eligible for publication as Special Prayer Needs that members may give to.
Balancing Needs with Available Sharing Dollars	"If approved needs exceed the shares submitted by members in a particular month, then the time to share needs may grow slightly. This has happened one month out of the last 12, so the time to share has been dropping. Ultimately, if the length of time to share a need grows, then the monthly share amounts are increased."	"We pay all eligible needs submitted for sharing. A larger amount of bills presented can cause the stream to go slower but we are committed to sharing all eligible needs."	"If all needs cannot be met, we use a prorating method to evenly distribute the burden."
Negotiated Discounts by MSM or member?	Member and MSM	Member; Use of MSM Reductions Department	Member, and "The Karis Group" a third party bill negotiation ministry
