Vaccine Adverse Events Cross ONE MILLION Mark

OpenVAERS.com reports the number of adverse events, including deaths, from all vaccinations. On Christmas Eve, the number of adverse events from the Covid shot crossed the one million mark. On that day there were a total of 1,000,227 adverse events that had been reported. There were 21,000 reported deaths, more than 3,400 reported miscarriages, and more than 35,000 people permanently disabled.

There have been more than 36,000 cases of severe allergic reaction, and more than 22,000 cases of heart damage. Of the 21,000 reported deaths, 7,100 occurred within four days of vaccination. Notably, many injuries and deaths may never get reported to the federal reporting system.
