Fight for the Country You Love

What is taking place in America has nothing to do with Covid-19. That's just the excuse. The curve's been flattened. The economy's been tanked. Cancers have gone undetected. Suicides have soared. Businesses have shuttered. Americans have lost the will to work. And everything from masks to Covid tests to vaccines got lucrative emergency use authorization with little evidence of validity.

Will we still have our country by the time most of America figures out they've been royally snookered? The biggest Trojan Horse in the history of man came into their country and they never realized it. As they cowered in fear, snitched on their neighbors, and shamed their friends, terrible things began happening to human rights, compassion, the U.S. Constitution, and freedom. It's time to ignore the Trojan Horse and fight for the country that you love!
