Governors Must Stop Federal Overreach

Michelle Bachman has said, "We're looking at a denial of civil rights at a level we've never seen before." She said this before Biden mandated Covid-19 shots for every business with at least 100 employees and every federal worker. Thankfully, nearly 20 governors have said, "No, Joe." They know he has no authority to tell their businesses to get the injection. The Biden administration is claiming authority they don't have hoping you'll bow to their demands. Don't bow.

As Governor Kristi Noem said in a tweet, "@JoeBiden see you in court." Don't submit or this will not be your last injection. Resist the government reset or we'll never get back to normal. Go to CovidLegal.org for resources. CovidLegal.org. And support your governor's defiance of federal overreach.
