Judge Forces Fauci to Be Deposed

On October 21, a federal judge ordered Dr. Anthony Fauci, former White House Press Secretary Jen Psaki, and six others, to submit to depositions on an expedited discovery schedule. The Missouri vs. Biden lawsuit charges federal officials with first amendment violations, such as colluding with social media companies to suppress disfavored speakers, viewpoints, and content on social media platforms by labeling that content as dis-information, misinformation, and mal-information.

After detailing his examination of each of 10 officials – a fascinating read all in itself – the judge ruled eight officials must answer questions under oath in a deposition. Thank you, Judge Doughty.
