The Great Resist

Have you seen the worldwide protests against vaccine mandates? During the third weekend of November, nearly 50,000 people protested in Brussels, approximately 200,000 people protested in Melbourne, Australia, the people of Zurich were out walking the streets under cattle yokes, and Rotterdam's streets were overflowing with signs and citizens.

In Genoa, a tunnel was completely filled with protestors. In Manchester, England protestors blocked a Covid testing center. Austrians hit the streets in tens of thousands to protest draconian lockdowns. A town square in the Czech Republic was packed with protesters, and in Rome the night was ablaze with tens of thousands of lights held by protestors. Corporate media has kept these protests hidden.
