Tell U.S. Senate to Stop Federal Vaccination Surveillance Bill

The U.S. House passed H.R. 550 to give $400 million to “modernize” the infrastructure of state immunization surveillance systems. The goal is a massive federal database of vaccinations. The bill will improve the ability of state and federal officials to profile citizens, report data, and target the unvaccinated. Despite current coercion over vaccination, 80 Republicans voted to help build the net.

The 14-page bill requires state immunization systems to be interoperable with electronic health records in hospitals and doctor’s offices — and to allow data to flow in both directions. Seemingly innocuous state vaccination registries are the camel’s nose under the patient privacy tent. Tell the US Senate to say NO to H.R. 550.
