Biden On Board with Digital Controls over Americans

The White House website includes the November 16th G20 declaration promoting global proof of vaccination for travel — and the establishment of “global digital health networks.”

These align with the controversial World Health Organization’s International Health Regulations for responding to global pandemics. The G20 proposes the global health network be built using digital COVID-19 vaccine passports, which are unconstitutional.

To try to convince the public that this is a good idea, the G20 say that this would stop future economic shutdowns. Don’t believe it. Digital IDs, digital driver’s licenses, REAL ID, and digital vaccine passports are all meant to impose totalitarian control. Refuse all digital IDs.
