U.S. Judge Rejects Biden's Mutilation Mandate

In good news, a federal judge struck down the Biden Administration's rule that would have forced doctors to perform mutilating gender transition surgery against their will and against their conscience.

The Biden administration claimed the 2020 Supreme Court decision that barred workplace discrimination against homosexual and cross-dressing individuals also barred doctors and hospitals from refusing to comply with the demands to be put on hormones and have body parts removed.

Two physicians sued when the administration unlawfully expanded the definition of "sex" to include "sexual orientation" and "gender identity" which are not in the legal definition of sex. Doctors, hospitals and you and I can breathe easier today because U.S. Judge Matthew Kacsmaryk ruled the right way.
