Globalists See COVID-19 as Opportunity

According to documents from a 2020 meeting, COVID-19 has given globalists a “unique opportunity” to change the world to their liking. This meeting was the group’s fourth meeting to “finalize and agree upon a set of principles for global cooperation” created by the World Economic Forum...including: strengthen global cooperation; re-globalize equitably; and deepen public-private partnerships.

There are more, but let me decipher these three:

- Global cooperation means global rule.
- Re-globalizing equitably means American prosperity disappears.
- Deepened public-private partnerships mean Big Business and Big Government join together to make and enforce the globalist’s rules.
