Dr. Scott Atlas Still Talking Truth About COVID

Dr. Scott Atlas, former COVID advisor to President Trump, spoke truth to Trump and the American people. Now, as the media try to force us back into fear, Dr. Atlas was on Fox News sharing needed truth. About masks, he pointed out four studies, including the gold standard study out of the Cochrane Institute, that make it clear that “masks do not work, period.”

And he said that Americans have to stop obsessing about testing for a virus that's endemic, no longer a pandemic. He says COVID will never go away. All the more reason to keep that early treatment kit on hand if you do get sick. He concluded with this statement, “the era of trusting people because of their titles should have been over years ago.” I agree. Do not comply.
