Have You Read My Book?

A Lake Mills, Wisconsin resident recently wrote a review of my book in her local newspaper. She said “the story behind the story” of physician burnout is “ominous.” In my book, she’d discovered HIPAA “ensures the invasion of your privacy”...and allowed Big Brother to begin the collection, centralization and dredging of everyone’s medical records.”

She said HIPAA allows government to control doctors “and ultimately, you.” She adds, “If you think this is all far-fetched, read Twila Brase’s Big Brother in the Exam Room.” And she concludes, “Refuse to sign the HIPAA form...and read the book.”
