CCHF Asks Trump to Discontinue Real ID

Due to coronavirus, President Trump delayed the October 1st deadline for Real ID. Many motor vehicle offices are closed. U.S. House leadership cautioned the Department of Homeland Security against maintaining the deadline. They suggested long lines at open driver’s license bureaus are a bad idea and millions of Americans have no way to get a TSA-approved ID before the deadline.

Even without COVID-19, many states have publicly said there’s not enough time to get new licenses to everyone to meet the deadline. Long opposed to this national ID card, our organization sent a letter to President Trump asking him to not only delay the deadline but to discontinue Real ID regulations altogether. As some states have said, Real ID is a federal usurpation of 10th Amendment States’ rights.
