Covid-19 is Powerless Against the Best News of All

Easter Sunday is around the corner. Some of you are with your family. Others are all alone. You may have lost a loved one from COVID-19, or are facing your own coronavirus diagnosis. This is a difficult time for many people around the world, whether it’s because of the illness, social distancing, loss of a job, or the fear of getting sick.

So, on this Good Friday, let us celebrate the Savior who went to the cross on our behalf so sin, sickness and death can never win. Coronavirus will not have the last word. Christ, the Creator of all things, is still in charge. On Sunday, we celebrate the resurrection of the King of Kings, who died and rose again that those who believe may live forever with him. May this good news bring you peace and joy in this difficult time.
