MN Building Unlawful Health Surveillance System

The Minnesota Department of Health (MDH) is unlawfully building a statewide health surveillance system.

On April 2, the Commissioner of Health, sent a letter to every Minnesota hospital ordering them to send the government “near real-time” data on all their patients, not just COVID-19 patients. Hospitals must connect their electronic health record systems to a government contractor, which will send patient data to the department.

Once the connection is established, the government anticipates using it for ongoing hospital surveillance after COVID-19 is done. The laws that are cited don’t actually give the department authority to do what they’re doing. Our organization has sent a letter to the Commissioner asking her to rescind the orders.
