May 28, 2020

Vaccination Mandate Madness Begins

Some want to force all Americans to be vaccinated if a COVID-19 vaccine emerges. One clueless doctor says government should mandate it. One attorney says government could constitutionally “plunge a needle into your arm” if you refuse. He said that’s what happens when you’re living in a democracy and a majority of the public supports it.

But we’re not living in a democracy. We’re living in a constitutional Republic, where certain individual rights are protected against mob and majority rule. Furthermore, vaccines often don’t work. For example, the seasonal flu vaccine has been up to 81% ineffective, and no HIV vaccine exists.

Vaccines can also hurt people. And sometimes, as Dr. Fauci on the White House task force said, vaccines backfire, making the virus more virulent for those who’ve been vaccinated.

“‘Power’ to ‘plunge a needle into your arm;’ Dershowitz says forced vaccinations are constitutional.” Spencer Neale, Washington Times, May 19, 2020: https://washex.am/2zpAX54