SAVE MONEY: Choose Health Sharing and DPC

Paul Moyer has lowered his bills for care and coverage significantly. First, he joined a direct primary care (DPC) practice, where he pays a monthly fee for his family and gets unlimited access to the DPC doctor. YOU can find a DPC practice at JointheWedge.com

Paul also dropped his $1600 a month Obamacare policy and switched to health care sharing. Between the two, he is saving $942 per month. In addition, his deductible, or the amount he has to pay before his bills are shared, is $6500 less than his Obamacare policy. What a deal!
