Health Freedom Minute

What We Did in Washington

We just spent a week in Washington. We had an amazing 22 meetings with Congress and the Trump Administration.

They were amazing because of the sheer number of high-value meetings, because of how long the meetings lasted, and because of what they asked us for. The meetings were also amazing because of how engaged the staffers were. It was clear we brought innovative ideas, we got them thinking, we gave them new information, and we countered big government, big business ideas espoused by high-priced lobbyists.

We came talking freedom. We didn't come asking for favors. We came asking for adherence to constitutional values. Thank you for supporting Citizens' Council for Health Freedom!
