Wedge Practices Focus on Patients Not Paperwork

Do you want a doctor who will focus on you, not their watch and not their computer? Go to JointheWedge.com and see if there is a practice in your neighborhood. That said, some people will drive far to see a doctor that lets them ask all of their questions.

Second, if you can't find one or even if you can, invite doctors you know to go independent of insurance and government contracts. Send them to JointheWedge.com where we bring patients and doctors together without outside interference and at an affordable price. Several Wedge practices will be at our fundraising dinner on September 19. Sign up by Sunday at cchfreedom.org
