Health Freedom Minute

September 22, 2020

Join Us ONLINE in Two Days!

In two days, our organization CCHF is holding our annual fundraising gala -- online. Funds raised will pay for this radio program, our new #FaceFreedom campaign against government-imposed masks, legislative initiatives at the state and federal level, and keeping CCHF on the ground fighting the battle for freedom, truth and constitutional rights now and in 2021.

Register today to join us this Thursday, September 24. We've already got attendees registered from across the country. It's so nice to see all your names! Join us online this Thursday to hear from me live and in person.
