Mr. President, We Won’t Forget

Welcome to the Health Freedom Minute. This is Twila Brase, president of Citizens’ Council for Health Freedom.

The CLASS Act, Obamacare’s long-term care program, has collapsed. Rumors that the program was in trouble had circled for weeks. Regulations weren’t being written. Staff was being reassigned. Two weeks ago, the Obama administration quietly announced its end.

When the program disappeared, $86 billion in purported savings under Obamacare disappeared too. According to the Republican Policy Committee, $86 billion is more than 160 times the size of the Energy Department’s controversial loans to bankrupt Solyndra.

I think Obama knew the program would fail, but he needed to count those savings to pass the bill. Now he hopes we’ll forget the sudden addition of $86 billion to our deficit. We won’t.
