Are You Playing Russian Roulette?

You are not alone in your opposition to COVID-19 vaccination mandates. Many Americans are objecting to being forced to weigh their job against their constitutional and human rights and potentially against long term damage to their body.

The injection has insufficient safety data, no data on long-term effects, and severe reactions for some. Taking the injection is like playing Russian roulette. You have no idea if it'll be harmful, harmless, or deadly for you. OpenVAERS.com shows 14,506 deaths reported after vaccination and more than 18,000 permanent disabilities.

Even the rich and famous are refusing. These include quarterback Kirk Cousins, about half of America's top tennis players, Broadway star Laura Osnes, and thousands of health care workers who have said "NO".
