At What Age Will Doctors Refuse You?

Will a doctor refuse you as a patient?

Dr. Bradley Allen writes that, "Some physicians now refuse even to take patients over 50 years old, not wanting to be burdened with them when they reach Medicare age." This will get worse. Obamacare reduced Medicare spending by half a trillion dollars, Obama's new budget would reduce Medicare by another $400 billion and Republicans may cut $70 billion from Medicare for the "doc fix" bill.

In 2013, one-third of physicians refused new Medicaid patients. And some doctors are refusing Obamacare patients. If you're not paying the bills, you get what you pay for. Find a doctor you trust and pay them directly for their service.
