The Affordable Penalties Act

The 2,008-page spending bill had a 1,000-page document explaining the bill. Few knew was in there before the vote. Over time, things will emerge and we'll all be surprised. We're pretty much where we were when Nancy Pelosi uttered that amazing statement about Obamacare: We have to pass the bill to see what's in it.

One thing we do know. The new law which spends $1.5 trillion dollars does not include the $2.5 billion bailout for health insurers to save them from Obamacare losses. That's a win. However, the tax extenders bill gave health insurers a delay in a $12 billion Obamacare health insurance tax, so the health plans that helped get Obamacare passed are happy. Are you?
