How Will Obamacare Be Repealed?

How will the Affordable Care Act be repealed? There are choices. They could use a one-page bill for full repeal. They’d need 60 votes in the Senate and the Democrats would likely filibuster in a 24/7 test of will and stamina. To avoid this fight and assure at least a partial repeal, Congress is using an easier route which could and should result in a more substantive repeal than the bill Obama vetoed last year.

Using budget reconciliation, which only needs 51 votes, they could repeal much of the funding and entire sections of the law so that most of the law could not be implemented. But some Republicans want to keep much of the $3 trillion in funding and just use it differently. I disagree. Let’s repeal all the funding.
