Four Scary Friday Facts

Grab a pen. It's Friday and here are four scary facts. Fact #1, the federal government is spending 30% of the GDP, but only receiving 18% in revenues. That 12-point gap between spending and taxing adds every day to our now $20 trillion deficit. Fact #2, we're borrowing $1 million a minute.

Fact #3, total debt and unfunded liabilities equal about $200 trillion. Fact #4, over the next 10 years the Congressional Budget Office expects the U.S. Treasury to only collect $43 trillion.

This is unsustainable. Tell Congress to reform Medicare and other unfunded entitlement programs before we're crushed by them.
