Will You Take the Red or Blue Pill?

In the movie The Matrix, the blue pill kept the public happy and uninformed. The red pill opened their eyes to the truth. At the Red Pill Expo, I spoke on the topic of “Getting the Government Out of Health Care.” I asked these 400 people if that’s what they really want.

So, let me ask you. Would you give up Obamacare subsidies and Medicare? Would you give charitably to help the truly poor? Obamacare is a wage and wealth redistribution system and Medicare goes bust in eight years. The blue pill of delusion is easier to take, but the red pill of truth gives Americans a chance to get back to freedom. Take the red pill by signing up for our action alerts at cchfreedom.org.
