Will Republicans Bailout Democrats?

It’s true that the GOP health care bills bail out insurers with boatloads of taxpayer dollars. But they do something far worse. The bills bail out the Democrats. That’s right. If these bills pass, we’ll still have Obamacare but now the blame will shift from Democrats to Republicans.

Why would Republicans bail out the Democrats? Even from a political point of view to say nothing about a policy point of view, that’s crazy. Republicans should vote to repeal the entire law, not bail out the Democrats who made it law. If a real repeal bill doesn’t pass, we’re in no worse position, but if Republicans pass a Republican version of Obamacare, Democrats win and Republicans lose. End of story.
