Building Escape Hatches Back to Freedom

Remember when Republicans promised to repeal Obamacare? Don’t get angry, get active. Congress is pandering to the big payers, the health plans raking in redistribution dollars and bailout cash. But “We the People” are more powerful than Congress.

President Teddy Roosevelt said: “the credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly.” Are you ready to strive or are you giving up and giving in?

On Tuesday, October 24 Fox News co-host Pete Hegseth will be speaking about staying in the arena. Join us at our annual event for an invigorating evening. We’re building escape hatches back to freedom. Come and hear how.
