Obama's IRS Enforcer is Coming Out

Under Obamacare, you'll be thinking about the IRS all year long. You'll have to check in online when you change jobs, have a baby, marry, or change your income. Depending on these changes you may have to pay a higher penalty for being uninsured or pay back part or all of your taxpayer-funded federal premium subsidy for buying insurance.

If you own a business, you'll be thinking about the IRS all the time. If even one of your employees chooses Obamacare insurance with a subsidy, you'll be fined. If you add employee number 51 and don't offer health insurance, you'll be fined. The IRS may need to hire more than 16,000 agents to enforce Obamacare.
