GAO Says Obamacare Paying for Abortions

Obamacare subsidies are not supposed to pay for abortion. But they are. One year after Obamacare enrollment first began, most insurance companies are violating the law.

The law requires health insurers to collect separate payments from enrollees for abortion coverage so that taxpayers do not pay for abortion. Without the law’s prohibition on abortion, many Democrats would have refused to vote for Obamacare, and we wouldn’t have it today.

House Republicans commissioned a GAO report. The GAO found 15 insurers in a sample of 18 selling taxpayer-subsidized abortion coverage on the Obamacare exchange.
