Be Scared of Obamacare

It’s six days before the election and here are six reasons to be afraid of Obamacare.

1) Obamacare expands Medicaid when 33 percent of doctors won’t accept Medicaid patients.
2) Obamacare cuts Medicare dollars to pay for Medicaid as 77 million baby boomers are becoming dependent on Medicare.
3) Young people will experience sticker shock as their premiums rise by up to 30 percent.
4) Religious organizations are forced to offer birth control in violation of their conscience.
5) The IRS will track and enforce the insurance mandate through Obama’s health exchanges.
6) There are at least 20 new taxes.

Don’t forget to vote.
