Hiding the Truth about Obamacare Enrollees

The federal government is not tracking the number of people who lost their health insurance and had to sign up for Obamacare.

President Obama needs as many healthy people in the Obamacare exchanges as possible or they will financially collapse. He needs healthy people to lose their health insurance and have nowhere else to go but Obamacare. Why? Because he needs healthy enrollees to bankroll the unhealthy enrollees.

It wouldn’t look good if he had to admit that many Obamacare enrollees were previously insured. That’s why the government is not even asking enrollees the question. More people will lose their insurance this year, but they don’t want to know who lost their insurance due to Obamacare. They only want to report how many people signed up for Obamacare.
