Samaritan Ministries Stories of Shared Bills Fully Paid

What would make you consider health sharing instead of health insurance? Floridians Phil and Kathy Robertson in a letter to Samaritan Ministries wrote, “Praise God! What looked impossible 10 months ago has been accomplished. All bills connected with Phil’s colon cancer are paid in full.” Tina Olson in Montana wrote, “I have read every one of the thousands of cards I have received.”

Mark and Carla in North Carolina, whose bill for a miscarriage could not be submitted but was offered to other members as an opportunity to donate, received 5 to 20 checks every day for several weeks: enough to pay the entire bill. Check out health sharing as an inexpensive, very personal alternative. You may be delightfully surprised.
