November 7, 2016

Advice on Voting Tomorrow

Tomorrow is election day. I can’t ever remember an election quite like this election. I’m asking you to vote. There’s a lot at stake. I can’t tell you how to vote, but I can provide advice.

I suggest you ask yourself what’s the worst that could happen with any of the candidates you must choose between. Second, use today to look through their websites and carefully listen to a speech or two. Third, ask yourself who you trust the most or fear the least? Fourth, look at a voter’s guide. Fifth, if you pray, pray for wisdom.

Someone will occupy every position on your ballot for the next two to four years. American patriots died so you could vote. Our future depends on you doing so. Go to the polls and vote.

Presented daily by Twila Brase, President, Citizens’ Council for Health Freedom.

The Health Freedom Minute is now heard in 47 states:
Mornings M-Th at AM1280 (The Patriot) in MN and 91.5 AM WHKC (FreedomFM) in OH, afternoons on American Family Radio, and daily on the CSN network and Bott Radio Network.