Send Obamacare Repeal Bill to Obama in January

All newly elected Republican senators campaigned on repealing Obamacare. And the U.S. Senate and U.S. House leadership have said that they are committed to repealing Obamacare.

As you may recall, House Majority Leader Kevin McCarthy hemmed and hawed on election night, finally telling Fox News that there wouldn’t be a repeal bill until they had the ability to replace it at the same time.

That’s a bad strategy. We don’t need a replacement. We need a repeal. The Constitution does not allow the federal government to be involved in health care. If it weren’t for Medicare, we wouldn’t have Obamacare today. Call Congress and demand they send a repeal bill to the President in January.
