States Say Yes States Say No

These states have agreed to build a state-based exchange: California, Colorado, Connecticut, Hawaii, Iowa, Kentucky, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Mississippi, Nevada, New Mexico, New York, Oregon, Rhode Island, Vermont, Washington, and the District of Columbia.

Five states accepted the Trojan Horse “partnership” model where states fund the federal exchange the U.S. House refuses to fund. They are Arkansas, Delaware, Illinois, Michigan, and North Carolina. Other states have said no to any exchange or are undecided. The only way to stop Obamacare is to refuse to build an exchange or cooperate in its establishment. Governor contacts are available at cchfreedom.org.

Sources:

“Iowa to build state exchange, but demands more details from HHS,” Kyle Cheney, Politico Pro, November 16, 2012.