Two Years Ago...

Two years ago on Christmas Eve, the U.S. Senate passed a national health care bill. Three months later on March 23, President Obama signed Obamacare into law.

According to Beacon Hill Institute, RomneyCare – the Massachusetts prototype for Obamacare -- has led to the loss of 18,000 jobs and increased the cost of health insurance by over $4.3 billion dollars. That’s just one state.

As 2011 ends, I’m praying for a Supreme Court ruling against Obamacare and that States will refuse to install the Obamacare control center – the exchange. Wouldn’t these be great gifts to find under the Christmas tree! Have a very merry Christmas!
