18 Brave Democrats

18 Democrats have come out against the medical device tax in Obamacare. These are the brave ones; the leaders; the ones willing to stand up and be shot at. How many more oppose the tax but don’t feel safe enough yet to say so. Meanwhile the medical device industry is laying off thousands of workers.

What happens when thousands of businesses start cutting hours of millions of employees down to just 29 hours? Obamacare penalties on employers are only for those with 50 fulltime workers or more -- and fulltime under Obamacare means 30 hours. What happens when the fully employed suddenly become part-timers? Democrats may change their tune in droves.
