Forcing You Into the Exchange

At a recent hearing, Congressman Ron DeSantis exclaimed, “The whole point of Obamacare is that you need to force people into these exchanges.” I couldn’t have said it better myself. Thus I ask you to stay out and help everyone you know stay out. The exchanges are central to the success of Obamacare. Thus, they are central to its demise.

In our weekly eNews, I shared six ways Obama is trying to force you into his Exchange. Consider subscribing today. This Minute is too short to share or explain the six, so I’ll leave you with just two of ways: cancellation of insurance policies and delaying the employer mandate. Forcing you in is their plan. Please stay out.
