The Intrusive Obamacare Exchange

What is the Obamacare exchange? Many claim it’s like Travelocity. Not true. Travelocity is a private company with employees. The Exchange is a government bureaucracy with bureaucrats. Also, when you go online to buy a plane ticket, Travelocity does not check your income, your employment or your family size. It does not offer you food stamps. It does not check in with the IRS, Homeland Security, SSA, or HHS.

The Obamacare exchange will do all of this. It will also access your medical records and your tax records. The Exchange is Big Government and Big Brother all in one. It’s not where you buy insurance, it’s where you register your compliance with the requirement to buy insurance.
