One More Month to Refuse to Enroll

Open enrollment ends one month from today. This means all enrollment, not just Obamacare. Insurers will shut down enrollment on February 15th. This fact alone shows that Obamacare is national health care.

The only exception is for a “qualifying life event,” such as moving to another state, income changes, divorce, marriage, losing employer-based coverage, birth, adoption or joining an Indian tribe. Then you can get coverage between enrollment periods.

The next open enrollment is likely October 1 through December 15, so to avoid the IRS Obamacare penalties, pick one of the Obamacare alternatives on our website. Go to cchfreedom.org
