Obama Continues Unilateral Rule in Obamacare

Obama’s continued delays, changes, alterations, and privilege granting know no end. He’s made at least 15 changes to Obamacare that Congress did not approve, essentially making up laws as he goes. The Constitution only allows President to execute laws, not write them. But no one is stopping him because we’ve all been caught off-guard by a president who thinks the Constitution doesn’t matter.

Will he be impeached? Congressman Paul Broun recently said he would vote yes to impeach him if given the opportunity. Oklahoma’s attorney general recently said Congress is not jealous for its own power. They’re the only ones who can write law. Call them up and tell them to take action to stop the president.
