Longshoremen Threaten Strike Over ACA Tax

20,000 longshoremen may strike, closing 29 ports because of Obamacare’s impact on union contract negotiations.

The 40% “Cadillac Tax” is imposed on that amount of a health insurance policy that exceeds $10,200 for individuals or $27,500 for families. The longshoremen’s union provides annual health benefits worth more than $40,000. That makes the tax $5,000 or more a year. Essentially, as Jonathan Gruber admitted, this tax will eventually cancel tax-deductions for health insurance and lead to the end of employer-based coverage.

Unions supported Obamacare. Now they are trapped by it.
